Corrections Officer Dies In Gun Accident

BARTOW - A state corrections officer died Saturday night when a pistol her husband was handling discharged accidentally, police said.

Sue Ann Campbell, 31, was shot in the abdomen and died while being transported to a hospital.

Police said the shooting occurred about 7 p.m. at 765 N. Pleasant Ave., where Campbell lived with her husband, Carlo Montecer.

The shooting is under investigation, Bartow police Detective David Wyant said.
